NIRI

NIRI LIVE PERFORMANCE
OSOGBO, OSUN
DATE: OCT. 2021

A group of people, likely a dance troupe, are captured in a dynamic pose during a performance at night. They are wearing traditional Yoruba clothing, including patterned blue and white dresses and white blouses. Several individuals are making peace signs with their hands, and one person in the foreground is giving a thumbs up. The scene is illuminated by a bright, warm light source, possibly a stage light, creating a high-contrast, dramatic effect. The background is dark, suggesting an outdoor or semi-outdoor setting.

NIRI LIVE PERFORMANCE
DATE: OCT. 2021

A live performance by the group NIRI. Five men are on stage, wearing blue patterned shirts and white trousers. They are wearing colorful headbands and headphones. The man on the far left is playing a large, dark, rectangular instrument. The man next to him is playing a smaller, round instrument. The man in the center is playing a set of three small, round drums. The man on the far right is playing a large, round, woven instrument. The background is a plain white wall. Two large, colorful, abstract paintings are hanging from the ceiling. The text "NIRI" is in the top right corner. The text "NIRI LIVE PERFORMANCE IKOYI, LAGOS DATE: NOV. 2021" is in the bottom right corner.
